

I request that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the law was implemented my wife and I have received far fewer solicitation calls than before but all the calls have not stopped. To relax the current law would only invite more unwanted callers.

Thank you.